

We hope you've had a great time in New Zealand.

We want to know about your experiences, to help us improve the visitor experience and to measure the importance of visitors to New Zealand.

TNS

The survey is totally confidential.
It should only take about 15 minutes to complete over the internet once you have returned home.

As a thank you for your time, please enjoy a small gift from New Zealand.

The Ministry of Business, Innovation and Employment is tasked with measuring the impact of international visitor tourism on the New Zealand economy. The information you provide in the survey will help us measure this. It also provides you a chance to comment on your experience in New Zealand.
