

Hi,

I know that this is a very important subject and hopefully will be implemented soon.

The main thing to implement is to force the supermarket to state for how much they buy the products so people have visibility on how much they are overcharging us. In particular fruit and vegetables which is outrageous. For example, they buy pepper in kg and sell it to us in unit price of 3.99. What a steal!

Oz