Q8

Please note any other interests and relationship to space below that you would like to share.

University of Canterbury's involvement on space issues includes education and employment pathways, research and development, commercialisation and critic and conscience of society. The University of Canterbury has local and global relationships that develop knowledge, capability and research projects and partnerships in advancing the exploration of space internationally and broadening Aotearoa New Zealand's space industry.

Q9

To what extent do you agree or disagree that these values should apply to New Zealand's space activities and engagements?

Innovation	Strongly agree
Responsibility	Strongly agree
Stewardship	Strongly agree
Partnership	Strongly agree

Q10

Are there any other values, or aspects of kaitiakitanga (guardianship), that you think should apply to New Zealand's space activities and engagements? For example, cultural values regarding space.

Univeristy of Canterbury believes the key principles of Te Tiriti o Waitangi should be elevated to the highest level of kaitiakitanga (guardianship) i.e. into the overview above the four values as detailed.
