The attached draft Cabinet paper reflects your direction on the Bill

1. We met with you on Monday 19 August 2024 to discuss the draft Cabinet paper seeking policy decisions on the Immigration (Fiscal Sustainability and System Integrity) Amendment Bill (the Bill) [2425-0352].
2. You confirmed officials' recommendations regarding:
  - a. the broad groups that would be able to be charged a levy ("any individual or entity that can be charged a fee, or a port, an employer, or a provider of education to fee-paying international students")
  - b. legislative safeguards around what the new levy could fund
  - c. the requirements for making an application for an individual Warrant of Commitment for an asylum seeker, and
  - d. the triggers for the exercise of the proposed facilitative powers.
3. You directed officials to simplify and shorten the paper, and to undertake a 'plain English' review to improve its readability. You also clarified the purposes of the new levy, and in particular noted that it would not address the wider infrastructure deficit, but that you were interested in how it could assist, for example, in supporting schools facing population pressures.
4. A draft Cabinet paper that reflects your direction is attached at Annex One for Ministerial consultation between 21 and 30 August 2024. The paper is now ten pages long, but it may be slightly lengthened by the RIS panel's final comments, which we have not yet received.
5. A tracked changes version of the Cabinet paper is attached at Annex Two.
6. The draft Regulatory Impact Statement (RIS) package is attached at Annex Three. The RIS package is undergoing its final review by MBIE's quality assurance panel, and we expect to have the final ratings by early next week.

We are continuing to discuss the proposal to broaden the levy purpose with Treasury

13. We are planning to provide an updated version (including the finalised RIS package), that includes both the outcomes of ministerial consultation, and any further direction from you, to your office on 6 September 2024, for lodgement on 12 September 2024.
14. In the interim, we will report back to the stakeholders we have engaged with on how their feedback has been incorporated into the proposals.
15. The key milestones for the project are set out in the table below:
