In brief I think that:

- 1) "Good Advice Outcome" should read either Good Advice or Good Advice Experience
- 2) to act with "Integrity and Professionalism" is best as it encapsulates honesty, fairness & integrity
- 3) Level 5 qualification should be a minimum requirement across the board
- 3) the cost of compliance and any future changes should be kept to a minimum so that Advisers are not over burdened with extra expenses

Kind regards,
